Join us for the above webinar on Thursday, November 22 via Zoom. Emilie Callan, Producer at Salt and Light and Central Region VP for ARCCC will be talking about what is a Synod? why is it important? and what is Pope Francis asking us to do? Emilie was named as one of two Canadian young adults as a delegate to attend the Synod of Youth held at the Vatican this October.

Resource Sheet Regarding Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Church

In response to this unfortunate situation, Catholic Organizations, Church Leaders and Dioceses across Canada have issued statements and developed various resources that can help us understand the Church's position on this matter. These resources are also a great source in the crafting of key messages around the issue and to help us maintain a consistent and unified language as Catholics and in our Communications efforts, when dealing with the media. We hope you will find them helpful in your ministry. (See separate attachment).
